

Student Voices Listening Questions
TSA Pat Downs Outrage

1. A grandmother was forced to remove her underwear by TSA agents after
 - a. she complained about airport security.
 - b. she set off alarms because of an artificial knee.
 - c. she refused to go through a full body scanner.
 - d. her name appeared on the no-fly list.

2. The grandmother feels that the manner in which she was searched
 - a. was necessary for airline security.
 - b. should be done on all passengers.
 - c. was improper and criminal.
 - d. was polite and carefully done.

3. A young boy without a shirt on was
 - a. stopped at the gate and was not allowed to fly.
 - b. still frisked by TSA agents.
 - c. detained along with his parents.
 - d. merely a protest and ignored.

4. During a pat down on a bladder cancer survivor, TSA agents
 - a. allowed his urine bag to go through, even though it was larger than allowed by rule.
 - b. spilled his urine bag and humiliated the retired teacher.
 - c. were polite and understanding.
 - d. horrified and rude.

5. The TSA feels that in matters of privacy versus security, their pat downs
 - a. should include all body parts.
 - b. will exclude private areas.
 - c. will be done with metal scanners only.
 - d. are only temporary during the holiday season.

6. Most people do not mind the scans or intense pat downs but
 - a. in the name of security, all precautions must be taken.
 - b. strip searches are beyond what is allowable.
 - c. most people have not gone through the enhanced procedures.
 - d. are worried about the delays and missing flights.