

The New Business of Education - Charter Schools

MULTIPLE CHOICE LEARNING ACTIVITY

1. The Noble Street College Prep is a charter school in Chicago has
 - a. a longer school year.
 - b. longer school hours.
 - c. a strict dress code.
 - d. all of the above.
2. Charter school are trying to improve student learning by
 - a. limiting the size of the classes.
 - b. having different, stricter requirements and rules than public schools.
 - c. spending more money per student than public schools.
 - d. hiring business experts rather than teachers.
3. Noble Street College Prep receives $7,000 per student from
 - a. corporate donations.
 - b. the parents of each child.
 - c. the Chicago public school system.
 - d. private donations and fund raising efforts.
4. Many of the 3,000 charter schools in our country try to improve student learning by
 - a. selecting only the best of the best students.
 - b. tailoring the curriculum to meet the specific needs of their students.
 - c. spending more money per student by providing the best resources and technology.
 - d. involving parents at every level of educational.
5. Charter school can improve their attention on the needs of students by
 - a. being smaller and more personalized.
 - b. specializing the curriculum.
 - c. being centered on just one age group of children.
 - d. all of the above.
6. Major corporations and wealthy people support charter schools for they
 - a. realize there is a profit to be made in creating efficient schools.
 - b. wish to serve their communities and offer students an opportunity to excel and achieve.
 - c. realize that their corporate experience can benefit future business leaders.
 - d. all of the above.