

Power To Learn

Viewing Comprehension Questions

'Most Gruesome' Video Game Ever / ABC News

1. Which video game, according to one media monitoring group, is the “most violent and gruesome ever?”

- a. Grand Theft Auto
- b. Manhunt 2
- c. Medal of Honor

2. The hero in the game must

- a. escape from a mental institution.
- b. kill people in a mental institution.
- c. steal, assault and murder while driving through L.A.

3. What rating did Manhunt 2 originally receive?

- a. M for Mature
- b. Adults Only

c. R for excessive violence.

4. Many major retailers and stores sell violent video games

- a. only with proper ID and parental permissions.
- b. rated M or below.
- c. to anyone. The ratings system is only a suggestion.

5. The creators of Manhunt 2 “tweaked” the violence level on the game

- a. to attract the “hardcore” teen gamers.
- b. to gain an M rating and increase sales.
- c. to escape criticism and censorship.

6. The “Adults Only” version and the “M” version of Manhunt 2 are

- a. both on sale with proper ID.
- b. 99% the same
- c. both the Number 1 video game in the U.S.

7. In Britain, the video game Manhunt 2 is

- a. more popular than Saw 4.
- b. banned.
- c. censored, with less violence and blood.

8. According to one of the makers of Manhunt 2, compared to horror movies, books and TV shows,

- a. the video game does not seem too violent.
- b. the game fits in perfectly.

c. his game leads the way in gruesome reality.

9. The movie Saw 4 was mentioned by the reporter to illustrate

- a. the popularity of blood and violence.
- b. how society has gone crazy and bloodthirsty.
- c. how violence America is.